My partner and I wanted to spend our more mature years in a balmy climate near white sandy beaches with warm ocean water. We also desired a laid-back but urbane environment, but all with a comparatively low cost of living. After searching the entire country, we settled on St. Pete and never looked back. I focus on the specific needs of my senior or soon-to-be retired clients. Whether you prefer a cottage in the gay-friendly historic Kenwood neighborhood of central St. Pete, a Gulfview condo, or a villa in the nation's first gay retirement community (15 miles south of St. Pete), I'll find the right place for you in this great buyer's market..
